Thank you for visiting Covance Laboratories Inc. in Greenfield! Situated about 25 miles east of Indianapolis, our Greenfield laboratories have a unique sense of culture and history. It was founded in 1914 by J.K. Lilly Sr. (son of the company founder, Colonel Eli Lilly) and originally started as a equine facility. Over the decades that passed, the site cultivated important advances in agriculture, industrial, and pharmaceutical research. With its distinctive Spanish mission-style architecture that balances both function and form, the site is enshrined on the National Register of Historic Places and is one of Greenfield's most recognizable landmarks.
